Exam Format and Question Types

The format of the ap world history practice exam 2023 closely mirrors that of the actual AP World History: Modern exam. It is divided into two main sections: multiple-choice questions and free-response questions. Understanding the structure and types of questions is fundamental to effective preparation.

Multiple-Choice Questions

This section typically contains 55 questions that must be answered within 55 minutes. These questions test students on a broad range of historical periods and themes, requiring skills in source analysis, comparison, and factual recall. The multiple-choice questions are often based on primary and secondary sources such as maps, charts, images, and excerpts from historical texts.

Free-Response Questions

The free-response section consists of three parts: a Document-Based Question (DBQ), a Long Essay Question (LEQ), and a Short Answer Question (SAQ). Students have 1 hour and 40 minutes to complete these. The DBQ requires analyzing and synthesizing content from provided documents to construct a coherent argument. The LEQ demands an in-depth essay response focusing on a specific historical theme or period. The SAQs test the ability to answer focused questions concisely and accurately.
