Understanding BT21 and Its Characters

BT21 is a collection of animated characters created by the collaboration between LINE FRIENDS and BTS, the South Korean boy band. The project was launched to blend BTS's creativity with LINE FRIENDS' expertise in character design, resulting in eight unique characters that embody different personality traits and cultural elements.

The Origin of BT21

BT21 was introduced in 2017 as part of a creative collaboration where BTS members personally designed the characters. Each member contributed ideas that reflected their own personalities and interests, which resulted in a diverse and relatable set of characters. The initiative aimed to expand BTS's brand influence beyond music and into lifestyle and merchandise.

Overview of BT21 Characters

The BT21 family consists of eight characters: Tata, Chimmy, Cooky, RJ, Shooky, Koya, Mang, and Van. Each character has a unique backstory and traits, making them easily distinguishable and beloved by fans worldwide.

- Tata: An alien with a heart-shaped head, created by BTS member V.
- Chimmy: A passionate puppy character designed by Jimin.
- Cooky: A tough yet adorable bunny, created by Jungkook.
- RJ: A fluffy alpaca with a gentle nature, designed by Jin.
- Shooky: A mischievous cookie character, created by Suga.
- Koya: A smart and sleepy koala, designed by RM.
- Mang: A mysterious horse figure with a mask, created by J-Hope.
- Van: A robot who acts as a protector of BT21, representing BTS's fandom, ARMY.
